

As part of the work on forces this term, Year 5 and 6 went to a listen to a visiting speaker from the London Science Museum at Whitehaven Civic Hall. The children learnt all about different forces from friction to gravity. A stunt flying frog, who kept on having accidents, helped them find out about Isaac Newton. As the show drew to a close Hugo was invited up on to the stage to help create a human helicopter.